Using Give as you Live™ Beta Everyday

Many people have their favourite stores bookmarked or the addresses are so familiar there is no need to search for where you want to go. If you go directly to a website and don't click through the Give as you Live™ Beta App to get there, you can still raise funds for your cause.

Because the Beta App needs to track the items you are buying in order to raise funds, you will need to ACTIVATE the Beta App to let it know which website you are on and which products you are buying.

Click the Beta App once at the beginning of your shopping trip and Give as you Live™ Beta will track your purchases for you, ensuring every pound you spend is also raising funds for your favourite cause.

Once you have clicked the Beta App, you will know it's working because the pink button will disappear, and you will see that tracking is activated.
